

Dominika Fedko-Wójs, born in 1992, lives and creates in Krakow. Graduated from the Krakow's Academy of Fine Arts with distinction, obtaining a master's degree in Graphic Design. For her master thesis and diploma which had been displayed at the Palace of Art in Krakow, she received a Society of Friends of Fine Arts Award, handed out during the official ceremony in Professor Karol Estreicher's Villa. In 2020 Dominika exhibited her paintings collection in the Szalom Gallery in Krakow, Kazimierz. She's also taken part in the collective exhibitions such as: Nowy Sącz (2017), the Artistic Book Design Exhibition in the National Museum in Krakow (2016), 3rd edition of the Krakow Photo Fringe Exhibition in Malopolski Ogród Sztuki (2015). Besides being a fine artist, Dominika is also a graphic designer in one of the biggest branding agencies in Poland, combining her professional career with passion for illustration, animation and artistic book design. The short animated movie called „Masterclass”, which Dominika co-created, has been nominated to the Gold Lajkonik Award at the 58th Krakow Film Festival, and has been chosen for the opening movie of Gdynia Film Festival in 2018. Since then, it had been screened and appreciated at various festivals, delighting the audience in Cieszyn, Lodz, Warsaw, Lublin, Germany, Norway and Bulgaria.
